

Kodo 35th Anniversary Commemorative Concerts

Three Nights of Celebration

The next generation of Kodo will take a bold step forward into new frontiers with three mid-summer night concerts in Tokyo. Further events are also being planned for these three days at Suntory Hall, so please mark your calendars and join Kodo there for each unique performance and more!

Aug. 18–20, 2016 Suntory Hall, Tokyo

Aug. 18 (Thu) First Night -Deai- (Encounters)

Taiko & Orchestra Conjure a Powerful Resonant Realm

Featuring: Kodo, New Japan Philharmonic

Conductor: Tatsuya Shimono

Join Kodo and the New Japan Philharmonic for a world premiere performance of new compositions by Toshiro Saruya & Sunao Isaji. Expect new and unique fusions of East and West.

Aug. 19 (Fri) Second Night -Spiral-

New Explorations by Kodo's Next Generation

Director: Tamasaburo Bando

Featuring: Kodo

Kodo continues to evolve with Artistic Director Tamasaburo Bando at its helm. This concert will showcase an array of selected Kodo works that exemplify this evolution.

Aug. 20 (Sat) Third Night -Hisho- (Soaring)

Dance & Beats Meld to Create New Japanese Culture

Director: Tamasaburo Bando

Featuring: Kodo with guest artists Blue Tokyo & Dazzle

Packed with a diverse array of powerful performances, the first act of Hisho features Kodo performing the compositions of Tamasaburo Bando. For the second act, Bando directs Kodo as they collaborate with two unique dance ensembles: the male rhythmic gymnastics troupe Blue Tokyo, and the street dance performance group Dazzle.
